

Umbilical Cord Toxicology

Order Name:
Revision Date: 01/13/2014

TEST NAME	METHODOLOGY	LOINC CODE
Umbilical Cord Toxicology

SPECIMEN REQUIREMENTS
Specimen	Specimen Volume (min)	Specimen Type	Specimen Container	Transport Environment
Instructions	Collection Instructions: 1. Immediately cut six inches of the umbilical cord. 2. Wash with saline and place in designated sterile container. 3. Label container appropriately with patient identification, date of time of collection, & collector's initials. Complete Chain of Custody form. Container: Sterile container with red lid designating for toxicology. Storage and Transport: Room temperature Stability: Good for 3 weeks refrigerated Rejection Due To: No chain of custody form Minimum Volume: Six inches of Umbilical Cord
Methodology	Mass Spectrophotometry

GENERAL INFORMATION
Testing Schedule	Monday - Saturday
Expected TAT	3 Days
Lab Section	United States Drug Testing Laboratories, Inc.